The Case Brought Up in New Lisbon Today.

DIFFICULT TO SECURE A JURY

Attorney Anderson, of Youngstown, for the Defense.

THE EAST LIVERPOOL JURORS

Case Postponed This Morning on Account of Absence of R. W. Taylor—Deputy Mayor Brought the Accused Into Court This Afternoon—Many Good Men and True Excused From Serving on the Jury.—Full Particulars Up to Four O'clock This Afternoon.

Special to the News Review.

NEW LISBON, Nov. 19.—A few minutes before 1 o'clock McGregor was brought into court. He looked well and was well dressed. The only people in the courtroom at the time were McGregor's father and several spectators with the special panel of jurors. McGregor was not frightened in the least. When court opened it was found that the attorneys for McGregor were P. M. Smith, R. W. Taylor, Anderson, of Youngstown, and Judge Young, of New Lisbon. For the state, Prosecutor Speaker and Attorney Carey. Thirty-six men answered to their names and Taylor objected to the panel as a whole because the sheriff had called not only the originals but the substitutes. The judge overruled Taylor's objections and called the first man, J. M. Aten, East Liverpool. He was sworn, examined and excused.

At 3 o'clock five jurors had been examined. Three of these were rejected and two accepted—Baltzer Brown, of Wayne township, and Henry Rodens, of East Palestine. David Stauffer, of Salem, was excused. George Kaufman, of East Liverpool, was next called, closely questioned, and finally accepted. William Stanley was excused. George C. Murphy, East Liverpool, was accepted. Israel Irwin, Wellsville; H. C. Weaver, Leetonia; M. T. Watson, Salem; Robert Hill, East Liverpool, and John S. Smith, Wellsville, were excused.

THE JURY.

May Takes Several Days to Select the Men.

Special to the News Review.

NEW LISBON, Nov. 19.—The McGregor case overshadows every other topic, and is the general subject of conversation on our streets. It was expected that the case would be called the first thing this morning. Owing to the unavoidable absence of R. W. Taylor, one of the attorneys for the defense, postponement was found necessary until this afternoon.

The full venire of 38 men is present, however, and it is expected that the empaneling of the jury will be commenced this afternoon at the opening of court. It is expected that much difficulty will occur in securing this jury, as a large number of the venire are from the southern part of the county, where this celebrated case has been read of and warmly discussed from the very first moment of the finding of the body of the murdered woman up to the present date. A prominent attorney at the bar expressed the opinion this morning that there was a possibility that it would require several days to secure this jury, although it is possible that it may be completed today.

Jesse McGregor, from the time the indictment in this case was first read to him, has shown splendid nerve, and has seemed as if he were a man of iron. Rumor now has it that the worry and confinement have had their effect upon him, and that he became exceedingly nervous this morning when the barber was called in to shave him, preparatory to his appearance in the court.

Newspaper correspondents are numerous in our town, and every paper in this section of the state will be ably represented.

THE CRIME.

Why Jesse McGregor is Before the Bar at Justice.

Jesse McGregor is before common pleas court to answer the charge of murder in the first degree by the killing of Mrs. Lizzie Ewing in Wellsville over a year ago.

The reading public will remember that on the night of the last day of May the Wellsville police found the body of Lizzie Ewing buried under a chicken coop in the rear of the house where until the 22nd of the preceding June she had resided. The body had been pressed into a small hole, and there left to decay, while the head was so near the mouth of a sewer that the color of the hair had been changed and the rotting features were almost unrecognizable. Before burial a gum coat had been wrapped about the remains, but it had done little in preserving the form after it had been placed in the damp earth. On that night Jesse McGregor, the son of Giles McGregor, a wealthy resident of Wellsville, was arrested, charged with the crime. Almost at the same time Alma Walters, commonly known as the White Swan, was arrested in Pittsburg and brought to this state. The woman was held as an accomplice until after the inquest, but upon a preliminary hearing was released. When Acting Coroner Riley rendered his verdict it was found that he believed Mrs. Ewing came to her death by violence at the hands of Jesse McGregor, and the accused was sent to jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. Alma Walters and two other parties were held in bond as witnesses, and the case, after creating an immense sensation, ceased to be a matter for discussion. Then came the hard work. The prosecution in the hands of Prosecutor Speaker and Sheriff Lodge began to look for testimony with vigilance and silence they moved about gathering incidents and connecting facts. Witnesses were secured and evidence obtained, and nothing left undone that would impair their case when it came to court. P. M. Smith and Jason H. Brooks, attorneys for the defense, were none the less active, and they lost no opportunity for strengthening their side of the case. At intervals some bit of news would crop out, and the public eagerly caught at every word, so intense was the interest. When the grand jury found that McGregor must stand trial on a charge of murder in the first degree there was a general awakening, and the public has been eagerly awaiting the result of what promises to be the most interesting trial in the criminal history of Columbiana county. Alma Walters is believed to possess the secret of the tragedy, and upon her testimony rests the result of the hard fought battle. Both sides have promised sensational developments and there may be a verdict which the public does not anticipate.

TWO ACCIDENTS.

Mrs. Curran May Die From a Fall—A Girl's Dress On Fire.

Mrs. Eleanor S. Curran, of Jefferson street, is lying at the home of the Willison family, Avondale street, dangerously injured. Last night she fell over the embankment along the street, and dropped almost 18 feet. She says there were no lights on the street and will bring action against the city for damages.

The little daughter of Mr. Arbuthnot, on lower Fourth street, was burned badly yesterday by her dress catching fire. Her injuries will hardly prove serious.

A Nice Present.

Marvin's bakery, Pittsburg, through grocer Huntsman, of this city, presented the Ladies' Auxiliary with a very handsome angel cake, profusely decorated with frosted work, representing roses, lilies of the valley and vine tracery, with the inscription on the center, in frosted work, "Compliments of Marvin's Bakery." The members of the auxiliary return warm thanks to Marvin & Co., and Grocer Huntsman for this elegant and toothsome cake.

Travelers Coming Home.

Mr. Harries, the efficient traveler of the Union pottery, is in the city, accompanied by his bride.

George Smith, of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, came in off the road on Saturday, and will remain until the holidays have passed.

A WONDERFUL SUCCESS

The Rink Packed With a Delighted Audience.

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY HAPPY

Over Two Thousand People Present. The Booths Filled with Beauty. The Supper Liberally Patronized. Sales of Goods Satisfactory—Fine Music—The Drill Brigade Scores a Complete Success—The Ladies Out of Debt.

Said Treasurer George Matheny, at the close of the rink entertainment on Saturday night last.

"Well, the Ladies' Auxiliary should be content and the members thereof should certainly be happy, as they have scored a most complete success, and I believe that, after all expenses of the three nights have been deducted, they will have to their credit the sum of $400, for which they have labored so faithfully."

Treasurer Matheny was right. The ladies of the auxiliary scored a most wonderful success. And these true women deserve the success they have won. Of course there was some "drone" among the members, as there always are in every organization; but the very large majority of the members worked indefatigably and intelligently.

There were over 2,000 persons paid admission to the rink on Saturday night last. The doorkeepers did their work like veterans in the cause. Orders were explicit from the committee in charge that no passes or checks should be issued; that all persons were free to pass out, but the sum of 10 cents would be demanded of them when they attempted to pass in again. There was considerable kicking against this order; but the great majority yielded gracefully, as the admission of 10 cents ruled no one, and the extra dimes aided the ladies in making up the sum they so much desired.

The drill brigade of young ladies from the various churches of our city did wonderfully skillful marching, and the immense audience applauded to the echo. Military men present, old soldiers and graduates of our military schools, were warm in their praises of the marching and drill of those young girls, who have aided so materially in winning success for the entertainment. The Ladies' Auxiliary returns sincere thanks to each and every member of the brigade.

The various booths were very handsome and attracted much favorable comment. Sales at these booths added materially to the sum total of cash taken in. The "old homestead" headquarters did a land office business on Saturday night. Twenty gallons of ice cream were dished out on this single night. The art booth was constantly surrounded by a crowd of delighted patrons, and numerous sales were made. This booth was arranged in exquisite taste. The many colored electric lights added much to its beauty. Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor contributed numerous handsome articles, lotus and other wares. These were marked down very low in price, and buyers seized the opportunity to secure prizes. The cash thus secured went to swell the exchequer of the auxiliary.

The first night of the exhibition, the young hoodlums of the city gained entrance through the coal hole and through a broken doorway in the water closet. On the second night these avenues of entrance were closed and barred, and the young toughs were compelled to resort to the old-time dodges at the door. On the second night they won some success at that point, but on Saturday night Mr. H. Tissot took charge, and he carried out orders to the letter, winning golden opinions from the auxiliary and bringing them in many dollars. Rumor has it that one full-grown woman came in through the coal-hole on Thursday night. Many young men, calling themselves gentlemen, tried to "bluff" their way in on the various nights, asserting that they had paid their way once and would not pay again. Some of these cases were all right, as certain doorkeepers disobeyed orders of the committee and passed numerous residents out, depending on memory to recognize these upon their return. This made it very annoying to the parties who "changed" these doorkeepers—men who obeyed orders strictly, and refused to pass anyone in without the production of the necessary 10 cents—and these "obedient-to-order" doorkeepers were roundly abused, while the men who disobeyed orders were commended by the crowd.

There were a number of young thieves present, and these required constant watchfulness. Despite all care, however, several valuable articles disappeared.

Mayor Gilbert kindly gave permission to Officer Wyman to have an oversight of affairs, and this officer enforced the very best of order. Officer Supplee dropped in occasionally, and a strict watch was kept on all suspicious characters. The scissors and razor stand was on hand, and one little lady had a fine dress utterly spoiled in this manner.

Mark the entertainment of the ladies' auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian association as a complete success. The business men and merchants backed the ladies up in splendid manner. Complete money returns will be given later.

Treasurer George Matheny has already banked $575.55 and there is quite a sum to be heard from, coming from the booths.

THE EXCURSION.

An Accident and a Fight the Only Trouble.

The special excursion train to Pittsburg yesterday attracted many East Liverpool people, there being 388 tickets sold at this station. About 700 in all were aboard the train when it reached Pittsburg, and the greater part of the crowd took in the pyrotechnic show at Schenley park. The flower show was without doubt the finest exhibit ever seen in the United States and was loudly praised.

W. H. Surles, of this city, was the only unfortunate man in the way of accidents. He was waiting for the gates to open for the train to return home about 7:30 o'clock last night, expecting of course that there would be the usual good order and formality of taking tickets. There was none of this, however, but instead a grand rush as soon as gates swung open. Mr. Surles was in front of the surging mass of humanity and was knocked down. Before he could arise he was trampled upon and his right wrist broken badly. Twice the pain was so intense that he came near fainting. The train was held almost 10 minutes while the railroad surgeon was called and reduced the fracture. Through the kindness of Conductor Pat Duffy Mr. Surles was fixed up as comfortably as possible in the baggage car. Mr. Surles called on Doctor Andrews upon reaching home and this morning the railroad surgeon at Wellsville was sent up to look after him. He broke the same arm in a street car accident in Pittsburg several months ago.

While at the Allegheny depot Chip Gamble and one of the men working on the long distant telephone line got into a heated argument. It resulted in a challenge to fight, and when they met on the train later Gamble grabbed his opponent and beat him so badly that he fainted twice afterward. A second fight came near growing out of this one but was quelled promptly. Conductor Duffy was not on duty in his regular position but saw to keeping good order on the train. One of the brakemen on the train stood and watched the Gamble fight without saying a word or interfering. The train reached here at 10:30 o'clock.

When the train pulled into Allegheny a rock was thrown through a window on the train and struck a lady on the head. As far as could be learned she was not seriously injured.

FOUL AIR

Made an East End Congregation Decently Sick Yesterday.

There was excitement at the Second Methodist Episcopal church, East End, during services yesterday morning, when a number of people grew suddenly ill.

Almost the entire audience experienced the agonies of a splitting headache, while some felt a suffocating sensation. Even the pastor, Reverend Sears, was taken ill, and not until they reached the open air did the people feel any relief. One of the first to investigate the cause of the trouble was Henry Chambers, and he guessed that the heater had something to do with it. Hastening outside the church as fast as his own headache would permit him, he found the cause. Both cellar doors were tightly closed and the heater was taking up, instead of pure air, a great deal of foul air, thus causing the illness of all in the room. Several became so ill that they were carried home, and one or two were unconscious. Doctors were summoned and those who were in a serious condition are now out of danger, although still very sick today. The ladies suffered the most, and among the most seriously ill were Mrs. A. Marsh, Mrs. A. B. Apple and Miss Alice Putnam. Others were Mrs. Radall and her two daughters, Mrs. Putnam, Misses Nellie and Annie Speight, Miss Edie McKinnon and the Misses Hutchison.

All necessary to prevent a repetition of the unfortunate occurrence is a cold air box connecting the heater with the outside of the church and it will be placed in position at once.

DENNOIS IS A 'DAISY

He Liked His Housekeeper Far Too Well,

AND HIS DAUGHTER OBJECTED

A Sensational Case in Squire Rose's Court—The Carrarher Shooting Affair and Other Cases in Police Court—Several Fights Make Work for the Police Saturday and Sunday.

A decidedly sensational case was entered in Squire Rose's court this morning when Miss Teresha Smith caused the arrest of Miss Lizzie Brewer on a charge of fornication. She named her father, Dennois Whippenback, as a party to the crime.

Last August Whippenback, alias Smith and his daughter, Teresha, a son 16 years old and a daughter about nine years of age, came here from Economy, Pa., as did Miss Brewer. The latter is a woman of about 21 years and good looking. She was Whippenback's housekeeper and evidently a favorite with her master, who is a German about 50 years of age. First they lived on West Market street, then on Spring street and at present time they reside in an old tumble down shanty in Pink alley. The eldest daughter refused to stay at home and has been staying at the Tuber residence in Jackson square while employed at the Thomas Knob works. Testimony showed that the four people often occupied the only bed in the house, but the evidence was such that but for the prisoner's imprudence the case would have been dismissed. Just as Squire Rose was about to let the matter drop she asked to make a statement, and then told the whole story, criminalizing herself. She said she could not sleep alone as the bed bugs were too plentiful. The squire placed her under $50 bond to appear in court, but an effort is being made to compromise the matter. Dennois was married this year, but his wife lived with him only one week.

From an investigation in the Carrarher shooting case, it would seem that the affair was an exciting one. Carrarher went into the home of Code Weaver, next to the Coulson saloon, and wanted a cup of coffee. Charles Coulson came in, and while the Weaver woman went outside to purchase a cabbage, he and Gamble got into a fight. Carrarher secured a revolver belonging to Alfred Shepherd in a washstand drawer in the front room, and Coulson also had a gun. They began firing, and six or seven shots were fired without effect. Then Mrs. Mary A. Taylor, Mrs. Coulson's mother, ran in and pushed Carrarher down into a chair. As she was stepping out of the door, Carrarher turned, and when she was about 15 feet from the back door of the Weaver residence, he fired at her. The bullet entered the flesh just above the knee, and passed clear through the leg. Mrs. Taylor left a trail of blood across the yard and through the saloon to the middle room of the Coulson house. When Dr. Williams arrived, she was sitting with her clothing saturated and her slipper full of blood from the wound.

After the shooting, Carrarher ran out on the Horn switch, and gave his revolver to an onlooker who walked away. Coulson also disposed of his weapon and went along peacefully when Officer Badgley arrived. Carrarher resisted and was thrown down while the officer placed his knee on the prisoner's stomach and handcuffed him. Both men were taken to Sixth street and in a few minutes the patrol arrived.

Chief Gill entered a charge of shooting with intent to kill against Carrarher and he will have a hearing as soon as Mrs. Taylor is able to appear against him. Coulson was released on $200 bail.

A man named Laird was arrested by Chief Gill Saturday afternoon while walking down Market street. He endeavored to get by the officer in time, but the latter's eye was too quick for him. He was charged with fighting with Jack Burns several weeks ago, and was fined $7.00, for which amount he gave security until night.

John Walters and Charles Coombs were arrested at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets Saturday night for fighting. They paid $6.00 each.

Hiram Skelton, for wanting to fight Ed Bratt near the rink, was arrested by Officer Supplee and fined $6.00. He paid it.

John Donovan and a West Virginia boy fought at the depot last night. Officer Jennings arrested Donovan and he will answer to the charge tonight. The other party escaped.

Mrs. Smith, Kelly Huntsman, Dan Cochran and Carrarher still occupy cells in the coop.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, NOV. 19.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio.

The News Review prints all the news.

It is a long time until the Republican primaries next spring, but there is a rumbling among the candidates which cannot but mean an active and enjoyable campaign.

THE Dayton Journal wants John Sherman made governor of Ohio to succeed William McKinley. Isn't it about time to let Mr. Sherman retire from the active field of politics?

It is presumed that the new plan of finance which Cleveland threatens to spring upon a suffering public in his next message is in line with other half-brained ideas of the president.

CLEVELAND believes he will appoint Wilson to the supreme court bench should a vacancy occur, never thinking that a man who looks upon protection as a fraud and unconstitutional is a dangerous individual to place in power.

GENERAL A. J. WARNER, the Marietta statesman who hopes to form a free silver party, might take warning from the fate of Congressman Wilson, and appreciate the fact that college professors are not a success in American politics.

THE next congress will not tinker with the tariff. That is assured, and if the Democrats can pass from the 1st of December to the 1st of March without scaring business into shivers of agony, there is little danger of any more panic while Cleveland reigns.

OHIO POLITICS.

There are two central figures in the politics of Ohio at present, figures which stand as representative men of the best state in the Union. William McKinley, statesman, is a candidate for the presidency in 1896, and if there is any reliability in indications, he will not only be nominated by the convention, but he will be elected by the people. The other figure is that of Hon. Joseph B. Foraker, among the best men the Buckeye state has ever given the nation. He is a candidate for the senate, and there are reasons for believing that he will be chosen by the legislature, even though a dozen other eminent men may rise to claim the position. Both of these Republicans have not only done noble service in fighting the battles of the party, but they are brainy, progressive Americans, possessed of a thorough knowledge of American institutions, and in every way fitted for all the honor that an appreciative people can bestow.

WANTED—SOME BUSINESS ABILITY.

If the Democratic party was made up of business men with the ability to transact business, the present administration would not have authorized an increase of $100,000,000 in our debt, nor would the gold reserve be so low that the secretary of the treasury dare not make the exact figures known. Had Grover Cleveland selected men to control the different departments with an eye to efficiency, and not political preferment, the deficit in the postal service would not amount to over $9,000,000 this year. There would have been a deficiency. All will concede that, but the amount would not be near three times as much as during Republican administrations. From these expensive instances, it is clearly gleaned that the party in power knows nothing of public business, or it dares not move in the right direction because of the demands of powerful, but inefficient bosses. At best the administration is fast proving a failure, complete and disastrous. Cleveland himself appears to be no greater than his party, and the gang with which he is surrounded seems to have no other thought than that of deriving financial benefit from public service.

BILL COOK'S THREAT.

He Says He Will Kill U. S. Attorney Jackson

IF HE DON'T LET HIS GANG ALONE

A posse equipped by Jackson at his own expense making it hot for the bandits—Cherokee Bill's notorious band surrounded.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 19.—United States Attorney Jackson has received a letter from Bill Cook threatening to kill him if he makes any further attempt to exterminate the gang. The force of deputies under Deputy United States Marshal McGill, were equipped by United States Attorney Jackson at his own expense, and the citizens here are loud in their praise of him. His instructions to them were to remain in the field until the gang had been either killed or captured. It was this force that surprised the bandits under Cherokee Bill and made the valiant fight reported.

BILL COOK.

Cherokee Bill has not yet been captured, though late reports say he surely will be, together with the full force he has been leading. The report that Cherokee Bill was badly wounded in the battle with the deputies has been verified by dispatches to United States Attorney Jackson. One of the two bandits captured during the fight was brought here by Marshal Cobb. His information from the fighting ground is that Cherokee Bill's band is surrounded and cannot escape by fighting their way through the deputies' lines, which, it is not believed, they can succeed in doing. Marshal Cobb believes, however, there will be another bloody fight.

THE ROBBERS FOILED.

An Engineer Prevents a Train Holdup in Mississippi.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 19.—An attempt to hold up passenger train No. 5 on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road at Panther Run, Miss., has been balked by the coining of Engineer F. A. Honer. Panther Run is a small way-station. Soon after nightfall, a half dozen strange men entered the hamlet and hung around for an hour or two. Then they disappeared and were not seen until the train had stopped and was starting out, when one of them appeared on the track ahead, signalling the engineer to stop. Engineer Honer pulled out the throttle and sent the train through. As it passed the signal light a half dozen unmasked men stood there, revolvers in hand, and all took shots at the engineer. Fireman Cole received a bullet through the arm and is seriously wounded. The men were evidently new at the business. The railway officials are exerting themselves to apprehend the would-be robbers.

Fearful Earthquakes Reported in Sicily and Southern Italy.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The earthquakes in Sicily and Southern Italy caused considerable damage to the telegraph lines and details of the phenomena are coming to hand slowly. It is known, however, that the Province of Reggio di Calabria suffered the severest damage by the seismic disturbances. Little damage was done in Reggio, the capital of the province, but there was great loss of life and much damage to property elsewhere in the province. Seventeen communities were involved in the disturbance, the centers of which were in the vicinity of Palmi, 21 miles northwest of Reggio and Bagnara, on the Gulf of Gioia, almost directly opposite Punta Del Faro, Sicily. The village of San Procopio, near Palmi, was almost entirely destroyed. Here 60 persons were killed. Forty-seven of these met their death in a church to which they had fled for refuge. Their bodies are still in the ruins. At Bagnara seven persons were killed. Eight lost their lives at Memerino and San Eufemia, being crushed to death, while many others were injured. The inhabitants of these places are obliged to camp in the open air.

Grand Opera Season Opens. NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Grand Opera season of 1894-95 will open to-night at the Metropolitan Grand Opera House with Gounod's "Roméo et Juliette." Thirty-nine evening and thirteen matinee performances will be given during the 13 weeks that the troupe of Messrs. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau remains in New York. In the announcement to the public contained in the prospectus the management defines its future policy to be the representation of the works of the great composers, old and new, presented magnificently by the greatest lyric artists of the day.

Invalidates the Title of Land.

LIMA, O., Nov. 19.—The circuit court has given a decision which invalidates the title to a large quantity of land, part of which is in the business portion of the city. The Standard Oil company's immense refinery and the Line-man stock farm are also included. John Bashore died in 1849, leaving a large estate, in which he gave his widow a life interest. She disposed of most of the property before her death, in 1891. Since then the heirs have been seeking to regain possession. The property involved is worth nearly $500,000, exclusive of the refinery.

Eight Men Killed.

PUNTA GORDA, Fla., Nov. 19.—An accident has occurred in Charlotte harbor by which eight men lost their lives. Ten workmen were asleep on a barge loaded with phosphate, when it suddenly capsized, burying the men under tons of rock. Two of them managed to escape, but eight were lost. The list of the dead is as follows: S. W. Mitchell, A. Parker, Wiley Walker, Tom Vann, Will Vann, Dave Franslyn, Berry Jones and Jack Spencer.

Old Conductors Suspended.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19.—Four of the oldest passenger conductors on the Lehigh Valley railroad were suspended Saturday. It is said more will follow. The discharged employees are not accused of dishonesty, but of failure to carry out the company's rules. Two Italians have been spotted the conductors for several months past.

A Murderer Gets a Stay.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 19.—Governor Osborne has granted a 14 days' stay of execution to Frank Howard, under sentence to be hanged at Rawlins, Nov. 23, for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Horn at Dixon last January. The stay was granted to enable Howard to present reasons why the sentence should be commuted to life imprisonment.

Has a Long Time to Repent.

DENVER, Nov. 19.—Miss Gertrude Hutchins, granddaughter of Commodore Hutchins, who eloped with and married Clarence W. Clark, an adventurer, last Monday after two days' acquaintance, has at the solicitation of her friends, already taken steps to obtain a divorce. Clark is in jail on a charge of larceny.

Three Wounded in a Fight.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 19.—A bloody battle has been fought here in which John Ashby, an ex-policeman, and Jack Heverin, a grocer and saloonist, were mortally wounded and Policeman Stuart seriously wounded.

Captured Without Loss.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—A dispatch from Grand Bassa, Upper Guinea, states that the French have captured the stronghold of the Akpless natives without loss.

A BLOODY SWINDLER.

Believed to Have Killed a Man For Insurance.

A CONFESSION TO COVER MURDER.

Probably Made by A. A. Holmes, Who Fraudulently Secured $10,000 Insurance From a Philadelphia Company—Arrested in Boston—His Tell-All Story.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—The prevailing impression in this city regarding the gigantic insurance swindle, which resulted in the arrest in Boston of Herman Mudgett, otherwise known as H. H. Holmes, and a variety of other aliases, is that the corpse found in the Callowhill street house, and upon which the $10,000 was obtained, was not a bogus corpse, but was in reality that of the beneficiary, B. F. Pitzell, and that he was murdered by Holmes. This is the belief, not only of the detectives of the Fidelity Insurance company, which was so cleverly victimized, but of Superintendent of Police Linden and the coroner. They think that the confession, made by Holmes detailing the conspiracy was a ruse to avert the theory of his having made away with the man who for eight years was his partner in crime.

Mrs. Pitzell, wife of the victim or conspirator, will be arrested today, but Levi G. Fouse, the president of the company, thought it prudent to keep secret until then her present whereabouts.

B. F. Pitzell was insured in the Fidelity Mutual Life association of Philadelphia for $10,000, and after the body was found in the wooden building at 1316 Callowhill street it was positively identified by H. H. Holmes as being that of Pitzell, and the $10,000 was paid over to the agent designated by Mrs. Pitzell.

Holmes' story was that the body was secured in New York and brought to Philadelphia in a trunk and placed in Pitzell's office on Callowhill street, where he was living under the name of Perry. Pitzell then disappeared and the police found the body. Holmes, according to a prearranged plan, came on from Chicago, where he had meanwhile gone, and identified the body. Mrs. Pitzell, then living in St. Louis, sent on her 14-year old daughter, who also identified the body. The money was unequally divided among the conspirators.

Interested in the Claim.

WASHINGTON, C. H., O., Nov. 19.—Some of the citizens of Fayette county are interested in a claim that is alleged to have been made by John Masters of Wellston, O., that his wife is an heir to a tract of land covering the south half of Jamestown, Greene county. There are 300 acres of land in the claim, south from a central line running through Main street, and belonging to one time to Martin Mendhall, who never decided away his title in the property. The rights of Mrs. Masters were discovered in some old papers, which revealed the title of her ancestor. Land records at Chillicothe and Xenia are being examined, and Mrs. Masters claims that the records have so far supported her claim. This land is now covered with many valuable private residences.

Appointed to Settle It.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The appointment of Senor de Leon of Guatemala as special envoy to settle the Mexico-Guatemala boundary trouble, which has caused frequent reports of war, is likely to end the difficulty at an early day. The officials of these two governments have been advised of Senor de Leon's appointment, but they expect him to go direct to the City of Mexico and not come here, as press dispatches state. He has wide experience in diplomatic affairs, having been at one time minister of foreign affairs in the Guatemalan cabinet.

General Gibson Slowly Dying.

TEXAS, O., Nov. 19.—The condition of General Gibson has become much more critical, and it is evident that the end is near. He can no longer talk above a whisper, and even that exertion tires him so that he seldom attempts it. His wife, daughters, their husbands and children are with him. He takes little or no nourishment, and cannot be prevailed upon to take any medicine, fearing that he cannot retain it on his stomach. He is slowly wasting away and cannot last many days.

Led by Deserter.

BOMBAY, Nov. 19.—There is reason to believe that the recent attack by Wazari tribesmen upon the escort of the commission delimiting under agreement with the Amir of Afghanistan, the Punjab, was led by deserters from the Twentieth regiment of Punjab infantry. The Waziris lost in the attack above mentioned 250, killed. The British losses were 3 officers, 15 soldiers and 21 followers, killed, and a few officers and 32 men wounded.

Naval Paymaster's Sentence Approved.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Secretary Herbert has approved the sentence of the court martial in the case of David B. Sayre, clerk to Paymaster J. E. McCann, who was convicted at Norfolk of embezzling $1,971 from the government. Sayre will be confined for two years in the Boston naval prison, with loss of all pay save $10 per month and $125 upon termination of the sentence and then to be dishonorably discharged from the service.

No Evidence of Their Guilt.

LIMA, O., Nov. 19.—Charles Hall and Lee Cain, the negroes who are charged with the Good murder, at Paulding, have been in jail at Van Wert, have been returned to the jail at Paulding. There is no positive evidence as yet of their guilt.

Mass For the Late Czar.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19.—Bishop Nicholas of the Russian Greek Orthodox church celebrated a large mass for the late czar and for his successor, Nicholas II, at St. Mary's Greek church, this city, Sunday. The bishop left for San Francisco today.

Plankton's Hearing Today.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 19.—The ex parte hearing in the case of Vice President Plankinton of the Plankinton bank, was resumed this morning before Judge Walber.

BUSINESS LAID ASIDE.

W. C. T. U. Delegates Attend Meetings Sunday—Dr. Bashford Talks.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—Business was laid aside Sunday by the delegates and officers of the National Women's Christian Temperance union convention. The hours were devoted to worship and rest. Many of the visitors spoke in pulpits thrown open by the city pastors. A mass meeting was held in Music hall at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. President James W. Bashford of Ohio Wesleyan university was accorded the honor of delivering the annual sermon, which office heretofore had been filled by women. After the sermon a rousing suffrage meeting was held, presided over by Susan B. Anthony, and in the evening meetings of the Y's were held in different parts of the city, presided over by secretaries of the organizations from different states.

A Double Funeral.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Nov. 19.—The double funeral of the late Hon. Myron B. Wright, congressman from the Fifteenth district of Pennsylvania, and his oldest son, Albert, occurred from the First Methodist church Saturday afternoon. Rev. C. M. Sordani, pastor of the M. E. church in Waverly, N. Y., officiated, assisted by Rev. Stephen Gay, pastor of the Susquehanna M. E. church. The United States senate was represented by Senator W. A. Peffer of Kansas, and the house of representatives by Congressman J. B. Robinson, J. D. Hick and Howard Mutchler of Pennsylvania, J. W. Causey of Delaware, C. A. Cadmus of New Jersey and T. A. Pashal of Texas. The interment was made in the Grand Street cemetery.

Armed to Prevent Lynching.

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 19.—The negroes armed themselves here to prevent the threatened lynching of the negro Collins, the suspected rapist. Police Sergeant Donohue found about 50 negroes armed with shotguns and revolvers in an alley back of Banker Clarke's residence. He ordered them to disperse, but they refused to obey and defied him to arrest them. With augmented force this crowd soon surrounded the jail, shouting that Collins should not be lynched. The sheriff also went to the jail with a strong force. The mob finally dispersed.

Morris Probably in Mexico.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 19.—The probabilities are that ex-Police Judge C. E. Morris, the forger and defaulter, has at last been located, as it is alleged that his relatives, who have heretofore been very reticent concerning him, have at last divulged the fact that Morris is at present in Mexico. If this be true, he is, at least for the present, out of reach of the law. It is thought that Morris' wife, who at present is with his relatives at Circleville, will soon follow her husband to Mexico.

B. & O. General Auditor Dead.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19.—William T. Thelin, general auditor of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, has died at his residence, at Mount Washington, a few miles from Baltimore. He was 59 years old. He served in the Confederate army and after the war was engaged in business in New York. He entered the railway service in 1872 and was made general auditor in 1884. He was connected with numerous religious and social organizations.

Starving Italians Commit Depredations.

ELKINS, W. V., Nov. 19.—The Italians employed on the Roaring Creek and Charleston railroad, about 400 in number, it is alleged, have not been paid for three months past, and many of them are on the verge of starvation and may become desperate. They have already torn up the switches at Wornelsford, rendering the railroad engines useless, and other depredations are feared.

Commander Lawler on a Tour.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Colonel Thomas G. Lawler, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has started on a tour of the east. The commander is accompanied by Major J. W. Burst and Adjutant General C. C. Jones, members of his staff. Toledo will be visited first, and from there Commander Lawler will go to Washington, Baltimore, Jersey City, New York, Philadelphia and other cities.

The Czar's Funeral Today.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—Following the custom that has prevailed ever since the time of the death of Peter the Great, imperial heralds paraded throughout the city Sunday and announced that the funeral of Czar Alexander would take place today in the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul.

An Ohio Girl Missing.

ATHENS, O., Nov. 19.—Flora Stewart, a young woman whose home is at Rutland, Meigs county, is mysteriously missing. Eight weeks ago she came here to take a Baltimore and Ohio southwestern train, to make a visit of two weeks. Nothing has been seen or heard of her since.

Called For Trial Today.

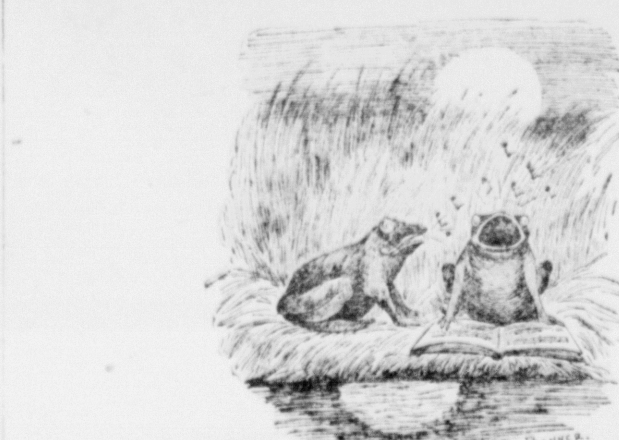

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19.—The case of Albert and William Eichelberger, indicted for the murder of Harry Britner, in South Washington, was called for trial today.

Miles Gone to New York.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—General miles has left the city for New York, where he will assume command of the department of the east.

SILENT SENATORS.
Democrats Refuse to Express Their Intentions Concerning SUPPLEMENTAL TARIFF BILLS.

Harris Merely Intimates That He Might Call Them Up—Monetary Legislation Probable This Session—Probable Chairman of New House Committees.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Democratic senators who are at present in the city decline almost without exception to discuss the probable plans of the Democratic leaders in the senate with reference to the supplemental tariff bills at the forthcoming short session of congress. The majority of them content themselves with saying that they have had no opportunity for party conference, and they do not wish to, at this time, express personal opinions. It would seem probable from this that a general Democratic conference among the party members in the senate is among the strong probabilities soon after the convening of next session for the purpose of determining this point.
It is, of course, well remembered that there is a faction on the Democratic side of the chamber which is opposed to any further efforts at tariff legislation by the present congress, and it is thought possible that the result of the late elections may have influenced others to take this view. Senator Voorhees, chairman of the senate committee on finance, declines to talk for publication on all subjects connected with congress or politics.
Senator Harris, also a Democratic member of this committee, contented himself with referring your correspondent, who asked him on this subject, to his remarks upon the point before the journal of the last session. It is recalled that he then announced his purpose of trying to get the supplemental bills up at the earliest opportunity.

THE NEW CHAIRMAN.
A Prediction As to the Probable Making of the House Committees.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The house committees which are expected to be of the greatest importance in the next congress are those on the ways and means, appropriations, rules, banking and currency, coinage, weights and measures, rivers and harbors, and public buildings and grounds. The first three named always head the list in order of importance. The others are expected to assume importance in the next congress because of the special conditions which will prevail during that congress.

The banking committee will certainly be one of the most important committees in the entire list if there should be an effort as is hinted there may be, to revise the currency laws and change the present system. Such legislation as this would lift the committee dealing with it from its present place of insignificance and place it for the time being alongside the ways and means committee. The probability of an effort to secure silver legislation, and the probability that the Republican party when it comes into power in the house will want to formulate a policy in this question, will have the effect also of advancing the coinage committee to a position of first rank.

The river and harbor and public buildings committees will have the delicate task of providing for public improvements, so far as a committee of the house can accomplish this work.
The Republicans at present have 6 of the 17 members of the committee on rivers and harbors, and all their members have been re-elected except Mr.
Henderson of Illinois. With Henderson out of the way, Hermann of Oregon may become chairman, with Stephenson of Michigan, Hooker of New York, Groves-nor of Ohio and Ringburn of Pennsylvania following in the order named.

Mr. Milliken of Maine heads the Republican membership of the committee on public buildings, and the chances are that if Mr. Reed becomes speaker Mr.
Milliken will be chairman of this committee.
Only three of the old Republican members of the committee on banking and currency are re-elected. They are Messrs. Walker of Massachusetts, Russell of Connecticut and Johnson of Indiana. Mr. Walker is likely to become chairman.

Of the six present Republican members of the committee on coinage, weights and measures, five have been re-elected to the Fifty-fourth congress.
They are in the order named: Stone of Pennsylvania, Johnson of North Dakota, Dingley of Maine, Hager of Iowa and Aldrich of Illinois. Mr. Stone would naturally become chairman of the committee, but it is suggested that in case of Mr. Reed's becoming speaker, he might have a personal policy with reference to silver which he would want to pursue, and in that event might want Mr. Dingley of his own state, as the leader on this committee.

In the natural order of events, Hon.
J. C. Burrows of Michigan will become chairman of the ways and means committee, with Mr. Reed in the speaker's chair, but there is little doubt that he will be given this important post, which carries with it the Republican leadership on the floor of the house if he fails in his ambition to succeed Senator Patton to his seat in the senate. With Mr.
Reed in the speaker's chair and Mr.
Burrows in the senate there would be only three Republican members of the present committee to choose from, these being Messrs. Payne of New York, Dalzell of Pennsylvania and Hopkins of Illinois.
D. B. Henderson of Iowa is the ranking Republican member of the appropriations committee, with Messrs. Cogswell of Massachusetts, Bingham of Pennsylvania, Dingley of Maine, Grout of Vermont, and Cannon of Illinois, coming in the order named.
While Henderson is now the ranking Republican member of the committee, Cannon was chairman in the Fifty-first congress and will probably ask to have his old place back. It is possible that either Cannon or Henderson will get the place, for in the event of Burrows becoming chairman of the ways and means, the probabilities are strong that the east would demand the chairmanship of the next most important, which would be that of appropriations. In that contingency General Cogswell chances for being promoted to the head of the committee would be excellent.

CON RIORDAN'S FUNERAL.
Fitzsimmons a Pal Heaver—L. Kelly to Be Indicted for Manslaughter.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19.—The funeral of Con Riordan, who died Saturday morning after having been knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons on Friday night at the Grand Opera House in this city, was held Sunday at the undertaking rooms of James Mullen & Son. It was attended by the members of the Fitzsimmons Variety company and a large number of sporting men. The services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Durston, secretary of the local Young Men's Christian association. The pallbearers were Fitzsimmons, Joe Danfee, Yank Sullivan, Dick Whittle, Edward and Captain Glori, manager of the Fitzsimmons company.
At the conclusion of the services the body was taken to the vault at Oak wood.

Lawyer Emanuel Friend of Friend & House of New York, who is Fitzsimmons' counsel and will look after his interests in this case, has gone to Boston with the Fitzsimmons company. He will return for the inquest, which will be held on Thursday evening next. Lawyer Friend told a reporter that in his opinion it would take expert testimony to get at the exact cause of Riordan's death. He felt sure that Fitzsimmons would be indicted and tried for manslaughter, but would be acquitted.

An Indianapolis special says: Dr. H.
S. Tanner, a physician who has given much study to psychological subjects, says that Riordan was probably killed by the physicians who made the autopsy.

LEAGUE SUSPENDS THEM.
Bucknerberger, Barnie and Effler Suffer For Aiding the New Association.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The National Board of Professional Baseball clubs, on account of communications received from the National league and American association of professional baseball clubs, the Eastern league of baseball clubs and the Western league of baseball clubs, has issued the following: "After mature consideration, and governed absolutely by a desire to comply with the letter and the spirit of requests made to this board, and with reasonable and substantial evidence upon which to base our action, this board announces and does declare that A. C. Bucknerberger, William Bar-nie and Fred Effler are ineligible to be employed either as manager, player or in any other capacity by any club or organization identified with the National agreement, and said persons are hereby suspended."

"The board further declares that such suspension shall remain in force up to and including Dec. 31, 1894, and in the event that the above named persons, or either of them, on or before the above named date, do not show to this board that he, or they, have been in no manner directly or indirectly engaged in any attempt to promote the organization of clubs, leagues or associations antagonistic to the National agreement, they shall be expelled and forever debarred from any connection with clubs or organized bodies operating under the National agreement."

TRANSMISSISSIPPI CONGRESS.
Questions to Be Discussed at the Meeting In St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—Arrangements have been practically completed for the transmississippi congress, which will meet here on the 26th inst. to discuss, as the call states, all questions which may affect the interests of the people in the territory lying west of the Mississippi river, and which may be the subject of legislation by the United States congress, and to express, to it through resolutions and otherwise the sentiments of the western people. It will also endeavor to take such steps for the presentation of these resolutions to that body as will command its attention and action. While any such question may properly be brought forward for discussion, among those most prominent are:

The reorganization of silver, irrigation of arid and other lands, the disposition of Indian and public lands, the Nicaragua canal, a national bankrupt law, the improvement of western rivers and harbors, anti-option legislation, mining laws and admission of territories to statehood.

Chicago Armenians Aroused.
CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Men cried like children at the meeting of Armenians at Bayer's hall, Milwaukee and Chicago avenues, Sunday night, when the story of atrocities of the Turks was re-told.
The listeners burst into sobs and buried their faces in their hands. Pitiful appeals were sent up for the Christian people of the world to take cognizance of the dreadful persecution of the Armenians. Other speakers spoke of taking up arms and dying in the cause of liberty and vengeance.

Breckinridge Will Lecture.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 19.—C. D. Hess, in an interview here, said the report that he had contracted with Colonel W. C. P.
Breckinridge for a lecture tour was true and that the colonel will begin at once.
His first subject will be "Ten Years Among Tariff Reformers."

General Booth In Detroit.
DETROIT, Nov. 19.—Detroit accorded a hearty reception to General William Booth and staff of the Salvation army Sunday. The general addressed three big meetings and his speeches aroused much enthusiasm.

Weather Forecast.
Fair, except snow flurries near the

LOCAL BREVITIES
Miss King, of West End, is confined to her home with a severe attack of rheumatism.
J. Q. Fowler is seriously ill at his home in West End with an attack of stomach trouble.
Ed Morley, clerk for W. O. Hamilton, has been ill for several days and the attending physician pronounces it a threatened attack of fever.

Hugh Mountz, Frank Powell and Charles Hughes went con hunting to Dry Run and Beaver creek Saturday night and are credited with making several good hauls among the animals.

The cars on the electric line were bunched considerably Saturday owing to a mishap on the road. The delay was of no consequence, and in the usual short time all was again lovely.

A force of men are employed on Third street grading the embankment left by the improvement, and preparing it for sodding in the spring. The upper side of the street will make a fine terrace.

Mrs. Dawson, mother of the late Will Dawson, whose ill was mentioned Saturday, was much improved yesterday. She is suffering with nervous prostration from the shock of her son's tragic and untimely death.

Several taps of the big fire bell caused great excitement Saturday afternoon, attracting large crowds to the street. No register was made at the central fire station, however, and the department did not turn out.

The grand rally at the African Methodist Episcopal church, yesterday was a success, $111.30 being raised to pay on the church debt. This leaves the church in debt only $89 and the congregation hopes to pay the balance soon.

The Faulkner-Heath fight over the river Friday evening is said to have given courage to several local people who have wanted to test their powers in the pugilistic line, so it is reported that another mill will take place in about two weeks.

A man who visited city hall Saturday to ask about a huckster's license, complained loudly of men who come in from the country and dispose of their goods without a license. He claimed that he had noticed several cases wherein the law was violated.

A broken trolley wire on the electric line near East End, caused a transfer of passengers for several hours yesterday morning. The break was at the water works pumping station, and the wire was down from there to the lower end of Laughlin's pottery. The delay was slight.

Thomas Worcester, of the Akron pottery, spent Sunday and today in the city looking for more men to work in the plant. He returned to Akron this afternoon with several men. Mr.
Worcester reported business brisk at Akron and matters booming with the pottery company.

Lieutenant Sinclair is in receipt of a letter from A. F. Nail, of Mansfield, manager of the "Drummer Boy," stating that it will be impossible to produce the play here before the latter part of next month or the first of January. An effort will be made to arrange for the production of the play at that time by local talent.

Percy Albright, whose horse, buggy and sewing machine went over the hill at Walkers Saturday afternoon, had a narrow escape. He had enough presence of mind to grab the horses' hind legs after he had endeavored to jump and became tangled in a buffalo robe. The horse rolled over several times but he held on and escaped any serious injuries.

The churches throughout the city yesterday took steps toward stopping Sunday excursions, or at least making the attempt. Votes were taken in the different sanctuaries, and it was unanimously decided to ask the officials of the Pennsylvania company to run no more Sunday excursions. Memorials adopted will appear in tomorrow's issue of the News Review.

The city police are of the opinion that council should provide a patrol box at Mrs. Coulson's place on lower Franklin street. The shooting affray of Saturday and numerous other instances has showed that a box is undoubtedly needed, as policemen making arrests are compelled to walk prisoners from the Horn switch two blocks distant to ring in a patrol call.

Reverend Wilkes, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church, delivered a very interesting address Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject,
"Good and Bad Books: Good and Bad Companions." Splendid music was in attendance, volunteer singers deligting the assembly of young men. The meeting was intensely interesting.
Secretary Morris was delighted, and so expressed himself. Young men will do well to take advantage of the cosy reading rooms, where can be found latest periodicals and newspapers. Come to the Sunday afternoon meetings.

IMPORTANT LETTERS
To Be Used by Dr. L. O. Williams in a Government Case.
Dr. L. O. Williams, of this city, is defendant in a government suit which promises to be interesting.

The case which was mentioned in the News Review Friday and copied by the Crisis Saturday, is the United States government in the District court at Cleveland against Doctor Williams, Jessie G. Glenn and Samuel McCurdy, for $10,000 as bondsman for John Y. Williams of Alliance. The latter is a brother of the doctor and the present difficulty arose from trouble during the time Williams was a government Indian agent and working in Idaho. At that time he was superintendent of an Indian boarding school at Fort Hall agency and through handling government money and vouchers the claim was made that he was short in accounts $15,160.68. Before the affair was fully investigated the controller at Washington had issued new vouchers and as it still stands it will require a special act of congress to allow him to retrace his actions. An inspector was sent to Idaho after Williams had gone back to Idaho to correct any possible mistakes, and that official found almost everything was correct.
Despite letters in the doctor's possession from the controller and auditor almost vindicating the ex-agent, they have allowed suit to be entered.
Doctor Williams did not know of the action until he read it in the News Review Friday, and in commenting on it said to a News Review reporter that he believed the bondsmen would win their case. Samuel McCurdy died about two months ago, but his estate issued by the action.
The letters in the doctor's possession will, it is expected, make excellent evidence in favor of Williams.

FRANK WILCZEK Again proved himself an artist of superb type. His playing of Wienlawski's great Concerto No. 2 with orchestra was admirable and faultless, winning from the enthusiastic audience a double encore. The duet playing of Mr. and Mrs. Wilczech was a delightful feature and created a storm of applause. They responded twice to the demands of the captivated audience.

GRANDLY GOOD WORK.

The First M. E. Church Choir. Warmly Commended by Pastor and People.

For some time past it has been known by the congregation of the above church that general repairs would be made and the church edifice beautified. It has also been known that an effort would be made to secure a first-class pipe organ, a credit to the congregation as well as to our city. It is now recorded history that improvements and organ have been placed and completed, and generous contributions made for the beautifying of the church building proper.

But it is not a generally known fact that the leader of the splendid choir of this church, backed heartily by every member of the choir, including the organist, Mrs. Ted Brookes, has resolved to pay for the magnificent organ just placed in position, without calling upon anyone for contributions, save those tendered in the way of the purchase of tickets for concerts which will be given under the auspices of the choir.

It has come to the knowledge of the News Review, from a thoroughly reliable source, that the concert to be given with the above aim in view, will be gems in their way, and that no effort will be spared in securing the very highest order of talent, thus assuring the public at large a series of genuine treats in the line of music, vocal and instrumental.

Pastor and people of this church are warm in their praise of their choir and the advancement it has made in the rendering of choice selections of song during the past year, and warm expressions of commendation have been heard very often by the writer.
But still warmer commendation will be given the leader, choir and accomplished organist when success crowns their effort to pay in this manner for the superb instrument now in use, and which will be a source of delight to the large audiences ever assembling in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The News Review, in company with hundreds of others in our city, expresses the earnest wish that complete success may attend the choir in their truly laudable effort.

THE CONCERT

Given by Mrs. Christine Schul-tze-Wichmann last Thursday evening at Irving Hall was the occasion of her first appearance before a San Francisco audience. All the numbers were received with great enthusiasm by a highly appreciative and critical audience. She sang the Cavatina and Aria from "The Prophet" with most artistic interpretation. Mrs. Schultze-Wichmann is possessed of an unusual dramatic and sympathy-etic voice. Her other numbers were also well received. San Francisco Chronicle. Grand

ing, Nov. 21, Y. M. C. A. Lecture

In Probate Court.

NEW LISBON, Nov. 17.—Claude Washington, the Wellsville colored newsboy who stole $10 and was arrested in Steubenville, was before Judge Young this afternoon and was sentenced to the Boys' Industrial school until of age.

Norman Woods, of Hanover township, was in probate court today charged with malicious destruction of property. As it seems that he is not mentally balanced, an inquest of lunacy will be held, and if the suspicions of the court are correct, Woods will be sent to the Cleveland asylum at once.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

A Large Audience Present—Money Flowed In Freely.

There was a fine audience present at the First Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning. Eddie Macrum presided at the organ, and the choir rendered several appropriate selections. Miss Pearl Sebring sang a solo, and delighted those present. She has a wonderful voice for one so young, and gives promise of great excellence in vocalization.

The pastor, Rev. Huston, devoted his hour, assisted by trustees and collectors, in raising money to liquidate the church debt, while Messrs. Zack Irwin, Alvin H. Huizer and Will Taylor recorded subscriptions and received ready cash. Three well-known residents contributed $133.33 each, starting the ball rolling with the snug basis of $400; 9 persons gave $100 each; 11 gave $50; 13 gave $25; 2 gave $20; 9 gave $15; 62 gave $10; 74 gave $5; smaller contributions, ranging from $3 to 50 cents, rolled in.
The sum total of the morning's contribution amounted to $3,581. One little tot of a girl gave the sum of $1 in pennies and small change, handing envelope and contents to the pastor, who responded with, "God bless the little ones; and a little child shall lead them." Little girls and boys contributed sums of $1 or 50 cents.
At 1 o'clock Rev. Huston was compelled to call a halt, and dismiss the congregation with the benediction, although small contributions were coming in from all sides, the reverend gentleman announcing that a further opportunity for giving would be afforded at the night service.

Mrs. Ed Knowles sang a solo at the night service, accompanied by the choir in chorus. Mr. Ed McIntosh and Miss Florence Elkins rendered a duet in a very pleasing manner. After the close of an able sermon, the pastor announced that an effort would be made to bring the day's subscription up to $4,000. This was accomplished with but little trouble, and then the choir and congregation joined in with "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow." Rev. Sears, of the Second Methodist Episcopal church, East End, dismissed the congregation with the benediction. The sum total given yesterday, morning and evening, was $4,001.63.

At the morning service Rev. Huston, at the request of Rev. J. C. Taggart, of the United Presbyterian church, made a statement respecting the running of excursion trains on Sunday on the Pittsburg and Cleveland road, asserting that the management of this road had done nothing of the kind in the past, and that the road had been wonderfully free from accidents or casualties, while other roads, noted Sabbath desecra-tors, had met with disaster and misfortune, notably the Panhandle route, where the saying followed the passengers of "take your coffin with you when you travel by this route." The pastor of the church then requested all those in the vast audience who believed that the Sunday excusion feature on the Pittsburg and Cleveland road was a wrong move on the part of the management of said road, and that said management should be requested to revoke the order issued, to rise to their feet, and the vast assembly rose as one person.
The "nays" were then called for, but not a vote was secured.

Outing Company Searching With Natives For Frank Lenz.

ALLEGHENY, Pa., Nov. 17, 1894.
Mr. J. J. Purinton, East Liverpool.

DEAR SIR:—The following is a copy of a letter Mr. Grove received Nov.
11, but was only handed to me by him this evening.

Messrs. Grove, Purinton & Lanhans, 66, Fifth avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—We would be very glad indeed to co-operate with anyone who would undertake to determine for us the whereabouts of F. G. Lenz, but what you are about to do has been already done and much else, by the company of which I have the honor to be the presiding officer. We are at present scouring the country through which Mr. Lenz passed, with the assistance of natives, who are more apt to bring about favorable results in the search than any other effort that we know of. This company will leave no stone unturned, and will spare no expense to find Mr. Lenz, if that be possible. We have never given up hope, we believe he is safe and will be found ere many moons pass. We are not willing to give up until all possible efforts shall have failed. We have not been willing to communicate freely our plans to everybody, because we do not wish to appear in the light of seeking free advertising for the Outing company at the expense of F. G.
Lenz. Very respectfully yours, J. H. WORMAN.

Mercy and Help.

Mrs. Ara Hawkins, superintendent of the mercy and help department of the First Methodist Episcopal church, desires to see the committee of that branch of charity on next Wednesday night, Nov. 21, after prayer meeting is over, as matters of importance demand immediate attention.
